

St Matthew's Passion

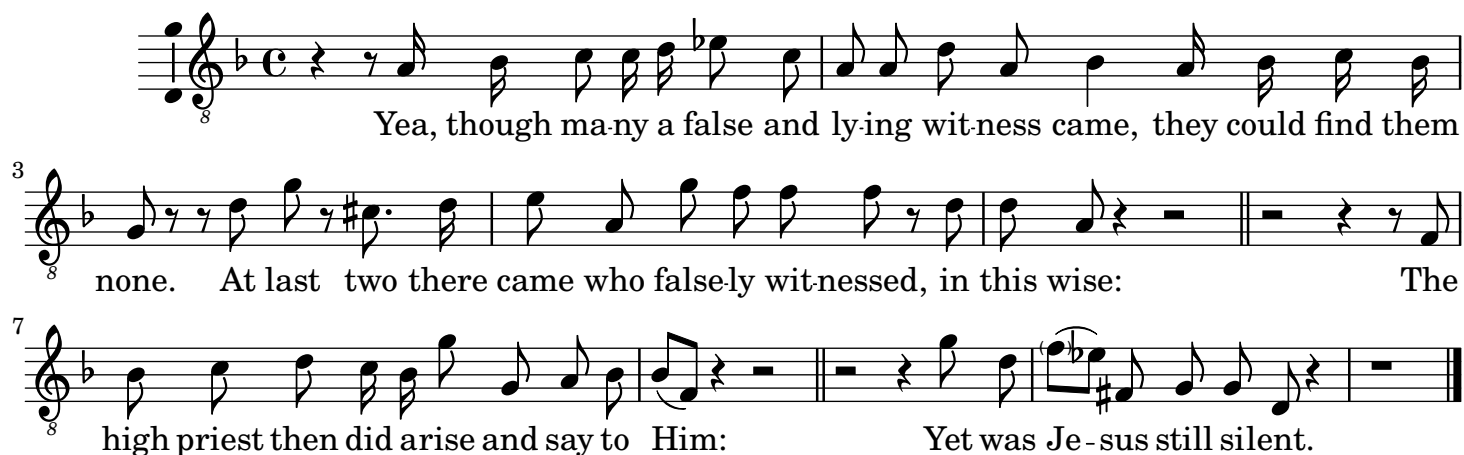

J.S. Bach

34

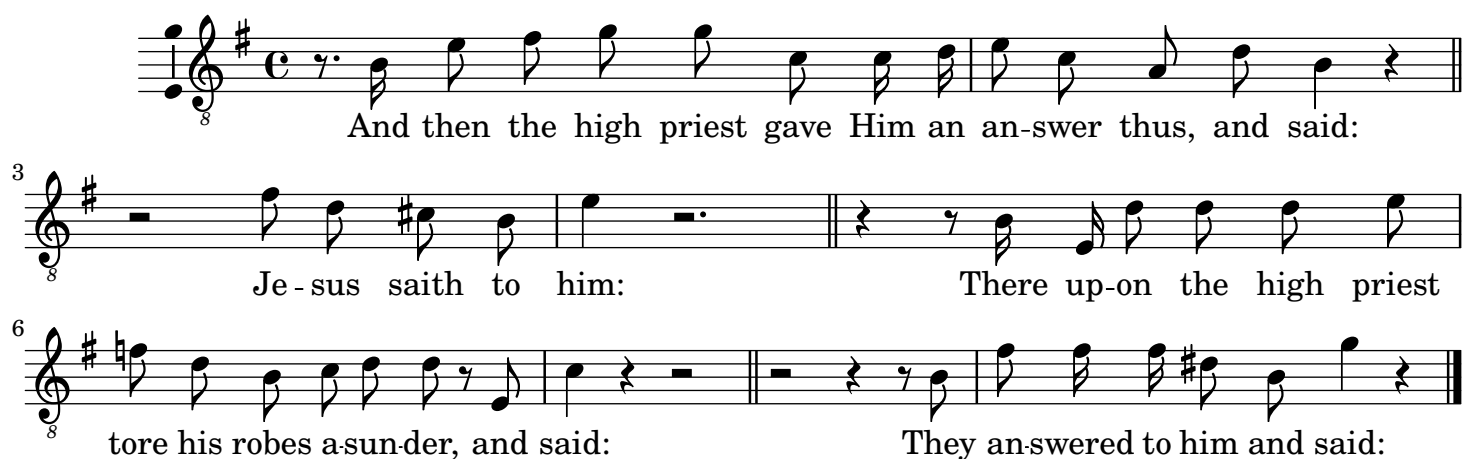

Be-hold then! One of His dis-ci-ples which were there with Je-sus, drawing his sword forth, he struck the high priest's servent, and smote off his ear. Then said Je-sus to him: In that same hour Je-sus said to the people: And then all the di-ci-ples forsook Him, and fled.

37

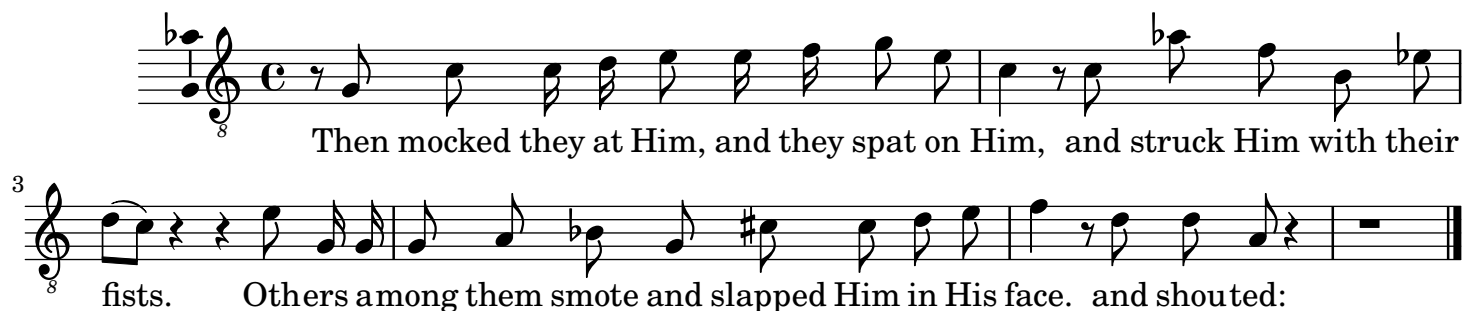

And they that had so laid hold on Je-sus led Him a-way un-to the high priest, Ca-i-phas; and with him were the scribes and the el-ders assem-bled all to-ge-ther. Pe-ter al-so fol-lowed af-ter Him a - far off, un-to the court of the high priest's pa-lace; and went there-in, and sat with the guards and ser-vents, that he might see how all would be end-ed. Then did the priests con-spire with the el-ders, and all of the coun-cil how that they might false wit-ness bring on Je-sus, that He might be put to death. But found they none.

Yea, though many a false and ly-ing wit-ness came, they could find them none. At last two there came who falsely witnessed, in this wise: The high priest then did arise and say to Him: Yet was Je-sus still silent.

And then the high priest gave Him an an-swer thus, and said:
 Je-sus saith to him: There up-on the high priest tore his robes a-sun-der, and said: They answered to him and said:

Then mocked they at Him, and they spat on Him, and struck Him with their fists. Others among them smote and slapped Him in His face. and shouted:

Pe-ter sat out-side in the pal-ace court; and a dam-sel came un-to him and said: But Pe-ter de-nied it be-fore them all, and said: And a-gain at the pal-ace door-way he was seen by an-oth-er

9
8 maid, who said to them that stood there with him: He de-

12
8 nied it a second time; and swore an oath: And in a lit-tle while came

15
8 oth-ers who had been stand-ing be-side him, and said to Pe-ter:

46

8 But still did he de-ny with cursing and with swearing: Im-

4
8 mediate crew the cock. Then Pe-ter brought to mind the words of Jesus, which

7
8 said unto him: Ere yet the cock crow-eth, wilt thou have thrice denied Me. And

10
8 he went out, and we - - - pt bit-ter-ly.

49

8 Now when the morning came, all the chief priests gathered with the 3

8 el-ders of the peop-ple to plot ag-ainst Je-sus, that they might kill Him.

5
8 And when they had bound Him, they led Him a -

6
8 way, and de-liv-ered Him to the court of the gov-er-nor, Pon-tious Pi-late. When,

8
8 there-fore, Ju-das the same who had be-trayed Him saw Je-sus con-demned to

4
10
8 death he re-pen-ted of him-self, and brought once a-gain the thir-ty 12
8 sil-ver pieces to the high priests and the elders, and said: They said:

50

8 Then he cast the sil-ver pie-ces in the tem-ple, and turned a-3
8 way, and went out; and he hanged him-self.
5
8 And when the priests had ga-thered all of the sil-ver pie-ces, they said

52

8 Je-sus there-fore stood be-fore the gov-er-nor; and the 3
8 gov-er-nor asked Him, and said: Je-sus an-swered un-to him:
6
8 But when He was ac-cused when the priests and eld-ers ac-
8
8 cused Him He an-swered noth-ing. Then Pi-late said un-to Him:
11
8 And He an-swered him to nev-er a word, not 13
8 one in-so-much that the gov-er nor mar-velled great-ly.

54

8 Now up-on that feast the gov-er-nor was ac-cus-tomed to re-

3
8 lease there-on one pri-son-er un - to them, whom-ev - er they want-ed.

5
8 Now at that time, and a-mong the oth - er pri-son-ers, was a

7
8 most no-tor - ious man, whose name was Barabas. And when they were gathered to-

9
8 ge-ther, Pi-late said un-to them. For he knew full

12
8 well that it was for en - vy that He had been de - li-vered. And while he

14
8 sat on the judge-ment seat, then did his wife send him a mes-sage, say-ing:

16
8 Still did the high priests ar-gue, and the el-ders, false-ly to in-flame the

19
8 peo-ple, that there-by Ba-ra-bas be re-leased, and that Je - sus be cru-ci-fied.

21
8 And the governor again returned to the people, and asked them: They

24
8 shouted: Then Pilate said unto them: Again they shouted:

56

8 The gov-ernor answered:

59

8 But crying out all the more, they shouted: When

4
8 Pi-late, there-fore, had seen he pre-vail-ed noth-ing, but that rath-er a-rose a

6
8 to-mult, he took wa-ter, and washed his hands be-fore them all and

8
8 said: Then to - ge-ther all the peo-ple an-swered, and

11
8 said: And Pi-late then set Ba-rab-bas free, but 14

8 Je-sus he had scourged; and then he de-livered Him, that they might cru - ci-fy Him.

62

8
The guards of the gov-ernor came, and they took Je-sus to the com-mon

3
8 hall, and ga-thered a-round him all the sol-dier band And then they did

5
8 strip Him, and brought a scar-let robe and put it on Him; and platted Him a crown of

7
8 thorns, and put it upon His head, and a reed in His right Hand; and bowed the knee be-

10
8 fore Him low, and mocked at him and said: And they spat up-on His 13

8 face and took the reed, and smote Him up-on His head.

64

8
And af-ter they had mocked Him thus, they took off from Him the scar-let

3
8 robe, and clothed Him a-gain in His own rai-ment, and led Him a-way that He be

71

8
Now from the sixth hour there was dark - ness

3
o - ver all the land, un - til the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Je-sus cried a-loud, and said: That is:

6

10
My God, My God, Ah, why why has Thou for-saken Me? Some of 13

them who stood and watched Him, when they had heard Him, turned and said:

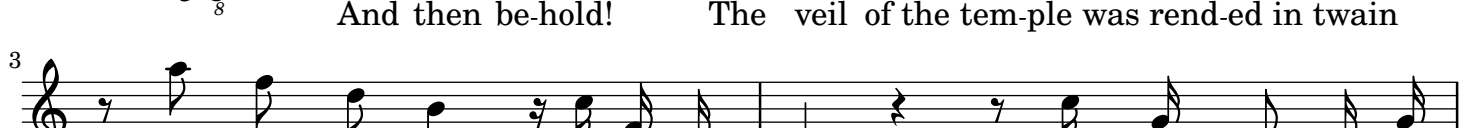

15
And straight-way one of them did run, and took a sponge; and 17 filling the sponge with vinegar, he put it upon a reed, and gave Him to drink. The 20 others spoke among them: And a-gain did Jesus cry aloud, and was gone.

73

8
And then be-hold! The veil of the tem-ple was rend-ed in twain

3 all from the top un-to the ground. And there came a great

5 earth-quake, and the rocks burst a - sunder, and the graves were opened again, and

8
8 there rose ma-ny saints and the ho-ly ones that were sleep - ing; and came from 11
8 out the graves af-ter Je-sus' re-sur-rec-tion, and went in-to the Ho-ly
13
8 Ci-ty, and ap-peared to ma-ny. Now, when the cap-tain, and the 15
8 oth-ers with him who were watch-ing Je-sus, when they saw the earth-quake and 17
8 those things that were done, they trembled greatly, and said At ev-en-tide there 20
8 came a weal-thy man from A-ri ma the-a by name Jos-eph, who was 22
8 al-so one of Je-sus' dis-ci-ples. He went un-to Pi-late, and begged of 24
8 him the bo-dy of Jesus, wherefore Pi-late commanded that it be gi-ven to him.

76

8
8 Then Jo-seph took the Body, and wrapped it in a cloth of pu-rest
3
8 lin-en, and laid It in his own new tomb, which he had hewn from 5
8 out of the so-lid rock. And when he had rolled a mighty stone to the door of the 7
8 tomb, he went a-way. There were al-so in that place Mary Magda-le-na and the 10
8 oth-er Ma-ry, sitting o-ver against Jesus' grave. Now on the morrow, which

13
8 followed the day of preparation, straightway there came the priests and the Pha-ri sees to -

15
8 geth-er un - to Pi-late, and said: And Pi-late said to 18

8 them: So they went out, and they guard-ed the grave with 21

8 watch - men, and they sealed up the stone.
