

St Matthew's Passion

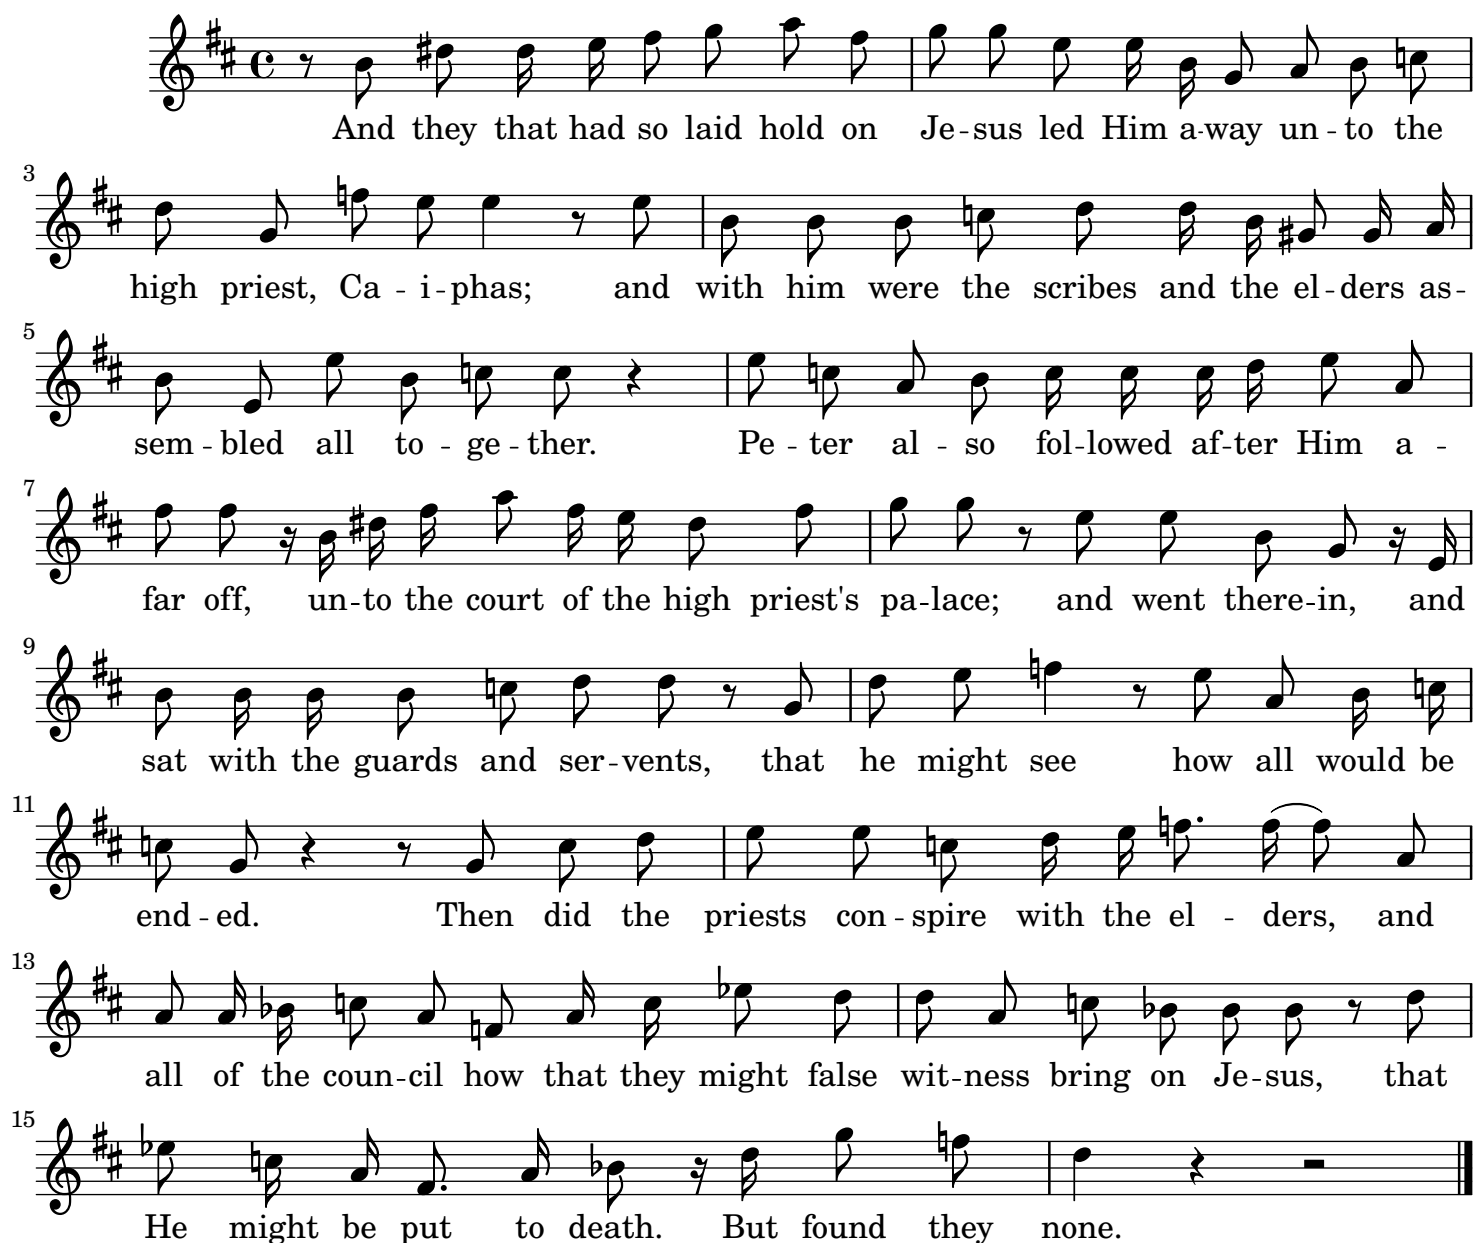

J.S. Bach

34

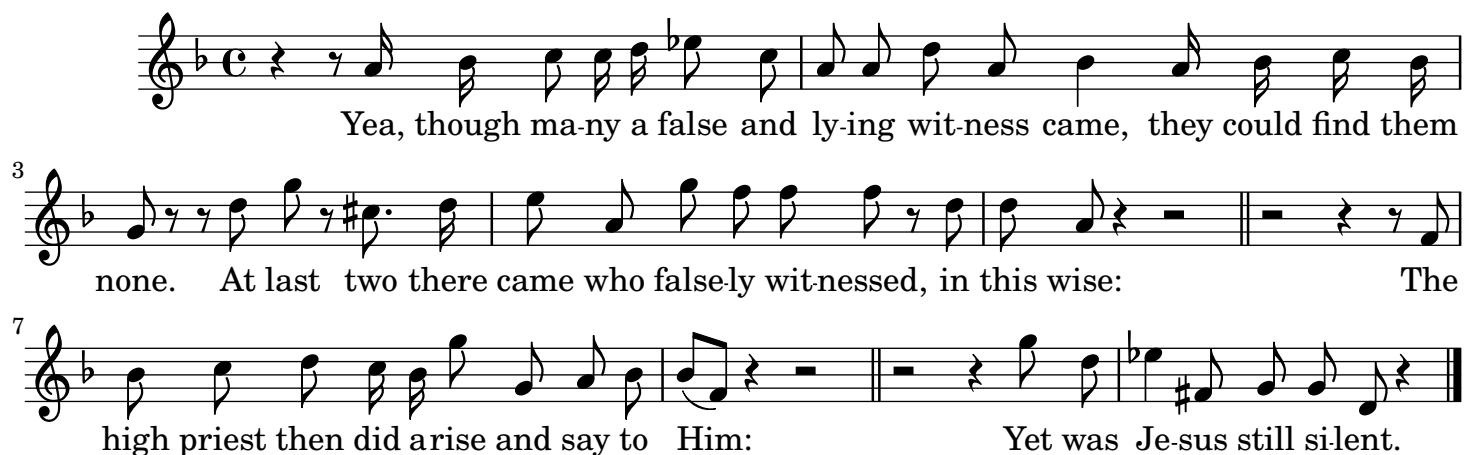

Be-hold then! One of His dis-ci-ples which were there with Je-sus, drawing his sword forth, he struck the high priest's servent, and smote off his ear. Then said Je-sus to him: In that same hour Je-sus said to the peo-ple: And then all the di-ci-ples for-sook Him, and fled.

37

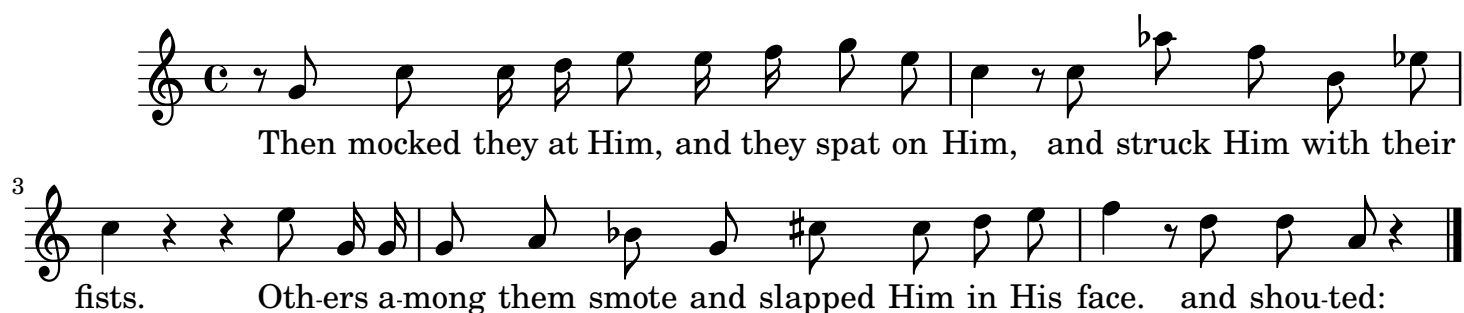

And they that had so laid hold on Je-sus led Him a-way un-to the high priest, Ca-i-phas; and with him were the scribes and the el-ders assem-bled all to-ge-ther. Pe-ter al-so fol-lowed af-ter Him a-far off, un-to the court of the high priest's pa-lace; and went there-in, and sat with the guards and ser-vents, that he might see how all would be end-ed. Then did the priests con-spire with the el-ders, and all of the coun-cil how that they might false wit-ness bring on Je-sus, that He might be put to death. But found they none.

Yea, though many a false and lying witness came, they could find them none. At last two there came who falsely witnessed, in this wise: The high priest then did arise and say to Him: Yet was Jesus still silent.

And then the high priest gave Him an answer thus, and said: Jesus saith to him: There upon the high priest tore his robes asunder, and said: They answered to him and said:

Then mocked they at Him, and they spat on Him, and struck Him with their fists. Others among them smote and slapped Him in His face. and shouted:

Peter sat outside in the palace court; and a damsel came unto him and said: But Peter denied it before them all, and said: And again at the palace doorway he was seen by another maid, who said to them that stood there with him:

11 He denied it a second time; and store an oath: And in a little while came 15 oth-ers who has been stand-ing be-side him, and said to Pe-ter:

46

But still did he de-ny with cursing and with swearing: Im-4 mediate crew the cock. Then Pe-ter brought to mind the words of Jesus, which 7 said unto him: Ere yet the cock crow-eth, wilt thou have thrice denied Me. And 10 he went out, and we - - - pt bit-ter-ly.

49

Now when the morn-ing came, all the chief priests gathered with the 3 el-ders of the peop-ple to plot ag-ainst Je-sus, that they might kill Him.
 5 And when they had bound Him, they led Him a - 6 way, and de-liv-ered Him to the court of the gov-er-nor, Pon-tious Pi-late. When,
 8 there-fore, Ju-das the same who had be-trayed Him saw Je-sus con-demned to 10 death he re-pen-ted of him-self, and brought once a-gain the thir-ty

4
12

sil - ver pie - ces to the high priests and the elders, and said: They said:

50

Then he cast the sil - ver pie - ces in the tem - ple, and turned a - way, and went out; and he hanged — him - self.
And when the priests had ga - thered all of the sil - ver pie - ces, they said

52

Je - sus there - fore stood be - fore the gov - er - nor; and the gov - er - nor asked Him, and said: Je - sus an - swered un - to him:
But when He was accused when the priests and elders accused Him He answered noth - ing. Then Pi - late said un - to Him: And He answered him to never a word, not one in somuch that the gover nor marvelled greatly.