

St Matthew's Passion

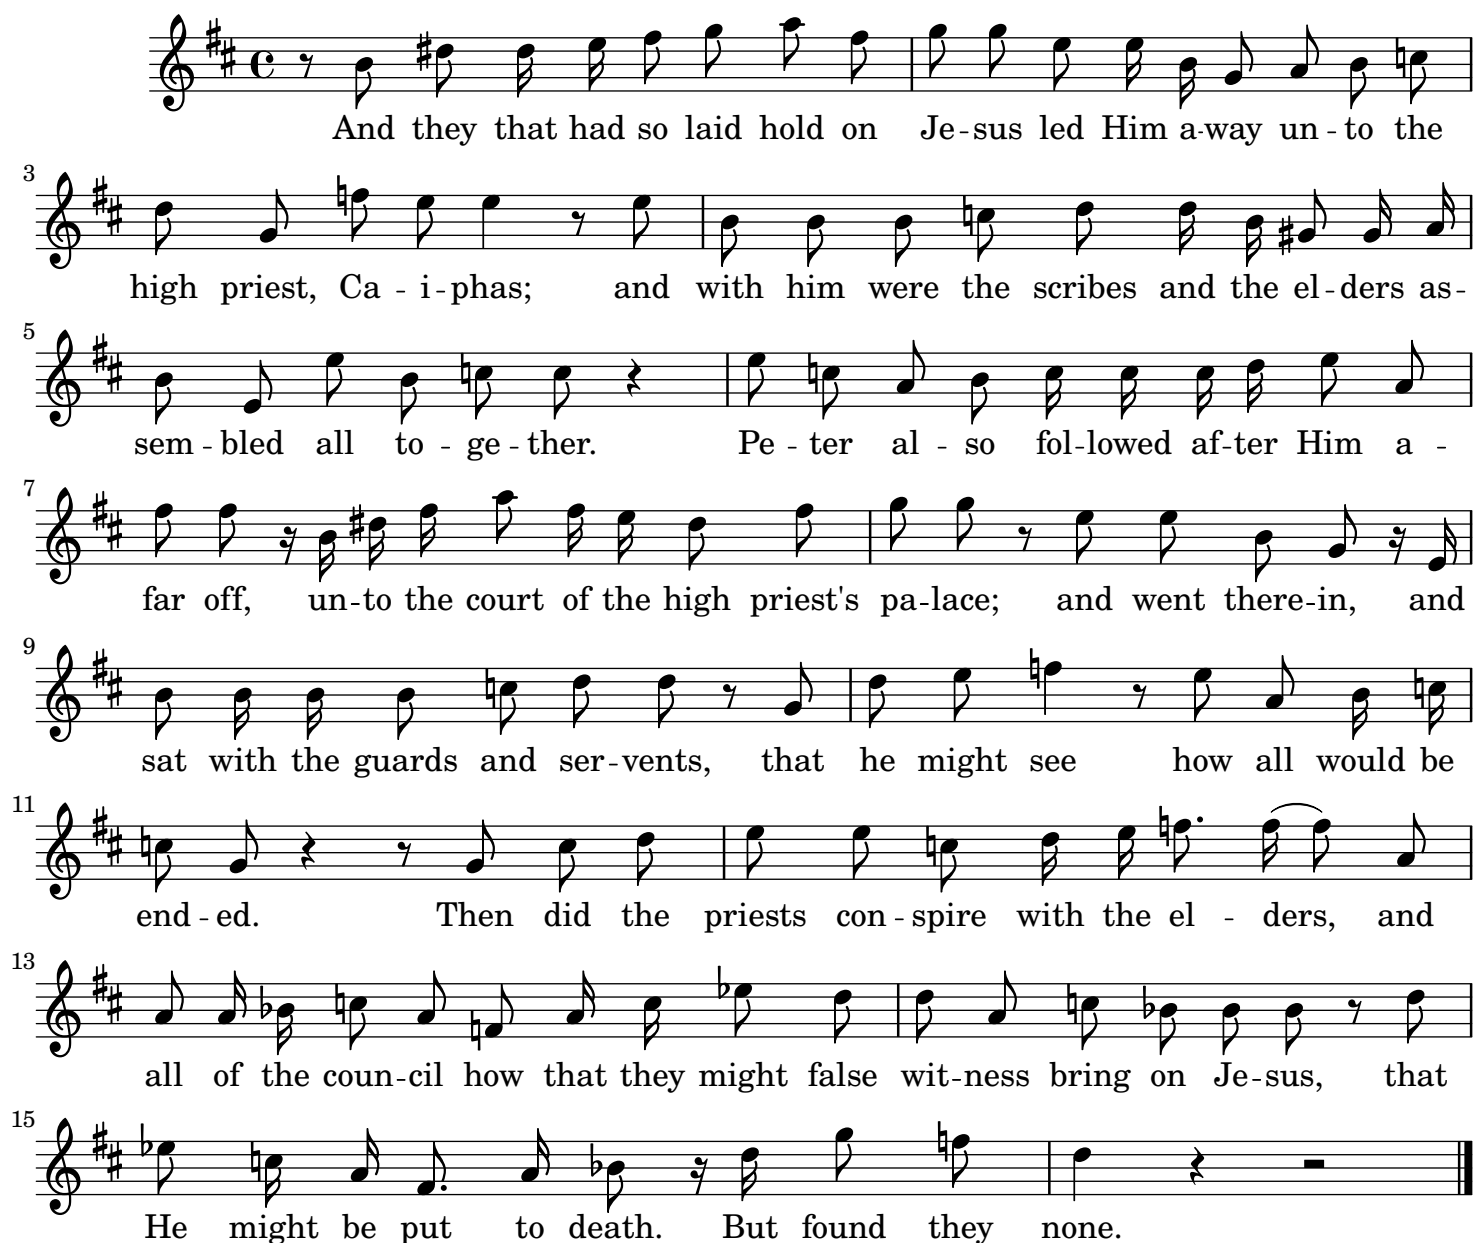

J.S. Bach

34

Be-hold then! One of His dis-ci-ples which were there with Je-sus, drawing his sword forth, he struck the high priest's servant, and smote off his ear. Then said Je-sus to him: In that same hour Je-sus said to the peo-ple: And then all the di-ci-ples for-sook Him, and fled.

37

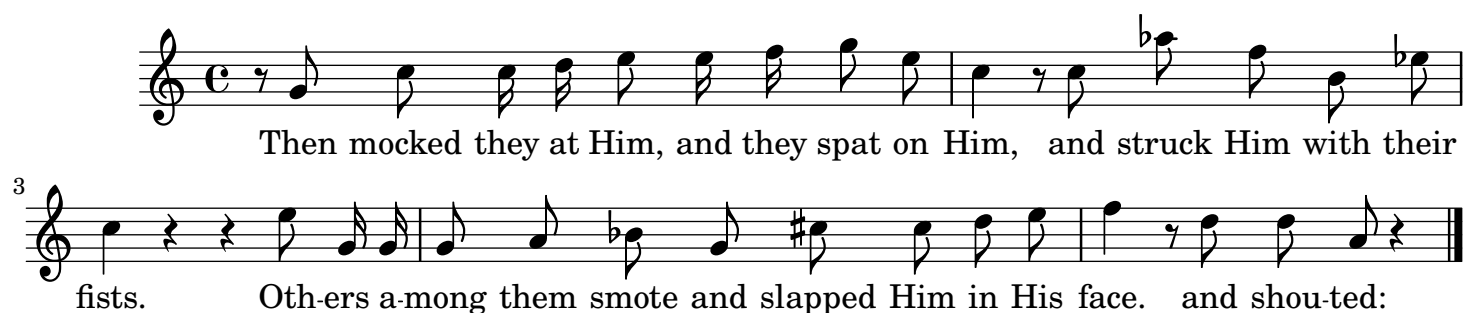

And they that had so laid hold on Je-sus led Him a-way un-to the high priest, Ca-i-phas; and with him were the scribes and the el-ders assem-bled all to-ge-ther. Pe-ter al-so fol-lowed af-ter Him a-far off, un-to the court of the high priest's pa-lace; and went there-in, and sat with the guards and ser-vents, that he might see how all would be end-ed. Then did the priests con-spire with the el-ders, and all of the coun-cil how that they might false wit-ness bring on Je-sus, that He might be put to death. But found they none.

Yea, though many a false and lying witness came, they could find them none. At last two there came who falsely witnessed, in this wise: The high priest then did arise and say to Him: Yet was Jesus still silent.

And then the high priest gave Him an answer thus, and said: Jesus saith to him: There upon the high priest tore his robes asunder, and said: They answered to him and said:

Then mocked they at Him, and they spat on Him, and struck Him with their fists. Others among them smote and slapped Him in His face. and shouted:

Peter sat outside in the palace court; and a damsel came unto him and said: But Peter denied it before them all, and said: And again at the palace doorway he was seen by another maid, who said to them that stood there with him:

11 He denied it a second time; and store an oath: And in a little while came 15 oth-ers who has been stand-ing be-side him, and said to Pe-ter:

46

But still did he de-ny with cursing and with swearing: Im-4 mediate crew the cock. Then Pe-ter brought to mind the words of Jesus, which 7 said unto him: Ere yet the cock crow-eth, wilt thou have thrice denied Me. And 10 he went out, and we - - - pt bit-ter-ly.

49

Now when the morn-ing came, all the chief priests gathered with the 3 el-ders of the peop-ple to plot ag-ainst Je-sus, that they might kill Him.
 5 And when they had bound Him, they led Him a - 6 way, and de-liv-ered Him to the court of the gov-er-nor, Pon-tious Pi-late. When,
 8 there-fore, Ju-das the same who had be-trayed Him saw Je-sus con-demned to 10 death he re-pen-ted of him-self, and brought once a-gain the thir-ty sil - ver pie - ces to the high priests and the elders, and said: They said:

Then he cast the sil - ver pie - ces in the tem - ple, and turned a - way, and went out; and he hanged — him - self.
And when the priests had gathered all of the sil - ver pie - ces, they said

Je - sus there - fore stood be - fore the gov - er - nor; and the gov - er - nor asked Him, and said: Je - sus an - swered un - to him:
But when He was accused when the priests and elders accused Him He answered noth - ing. Then Pi - late said un - to Him: And He answered him to never a word, not one in so much that the gov - er nor marvelled greatly.

54

Now up - on that feast the gov - er - nor was ac - cus - tomed to re - lease there - on one pri - son - er un - to them, whom - ev - er they want - ed.
Now at that time, and a - mong the oth - er pri - son - ers, was a 7 most no-tor - ious man, whose name was Barabas. And when they were gathered to-

9 ge - ther, Pi-late said un-to them. For he knew full

11 well that it was for en - vy that He had been de - li-vered. And while he

13 sat on the judge-ment seat, then did his wife send him a mes-sage, say-ing:

15 Still did the high priests ar-gue, and the el-ders, false-ly to in-flame the 17 peo-ple, that there-by Ba-ra-bas be re-leased, and that Je-sus be cru-ci-fied.

19 And the governor again returned to the people, and asked them: They

22 shouted: Then Pilate said unto them: Again they shouted:

56

The gov-ernor answered:

59

But cry-ing out all the more, they shouted: When

4 Pi-late, there-fore, had seen he pre-vail-ed noth-ing, but that rath-er a-rose a

6 to-mult, he took wa-ter, and washed his hands be-fore them all and said: Then to - ge - ther all the peo - ple an - swered, and said: And Pi - late then set Ba - rab - bas free, but Je - sus he had scourged; and then he de - livered Him, that they might cru - ci - fy Him.

The guards of the gov - ern - nor came, and they took Je - sus to the com - mon hall, and ga - thered a - round him all the sol - dier band And then they did strip Him, and brought a scarlet robe and put it on Him; and platted Him a crown of thorns, and put it upon His head, and a reed in His right Hand; and bowed the knee be - fore Him low, and mocked at him and said: And they spat up - on His face and took the reed, and smote Him up - on His head.
