

St Matthew's Passion

J.S. Bach

34

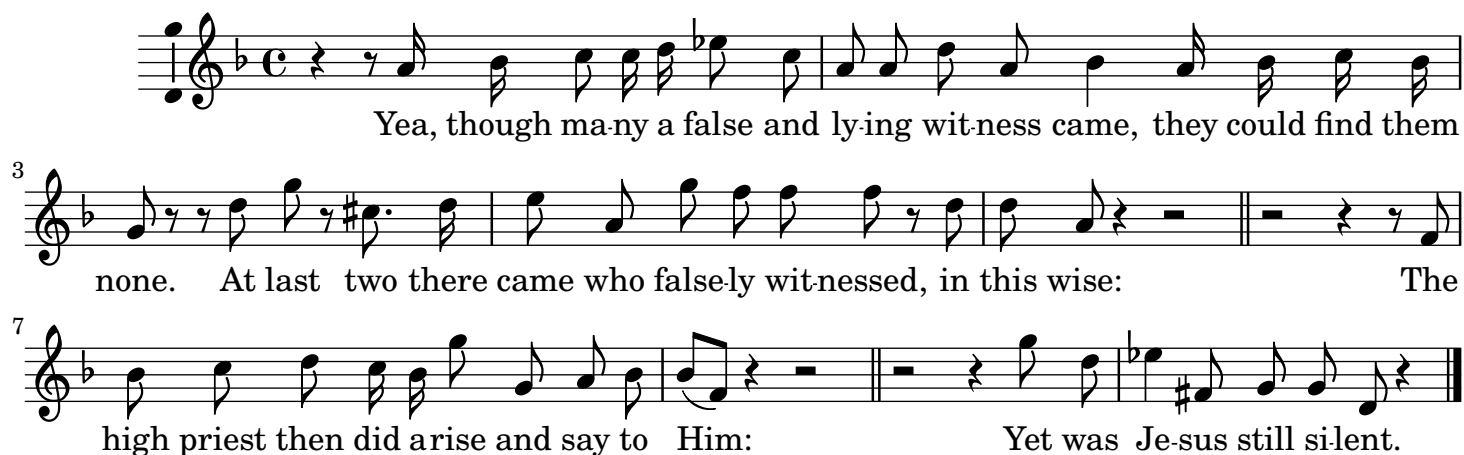

Be-hold then! One of His dis-ci-ples which were there with Je-sus, drawing his sword forth, he struck the high priest's servent, and smote off his ear. Then said Je-sus to him: In that same hour Je-sus said to the peo-ple: And then all the di-ci-ples for-sook Him, and fled.

37

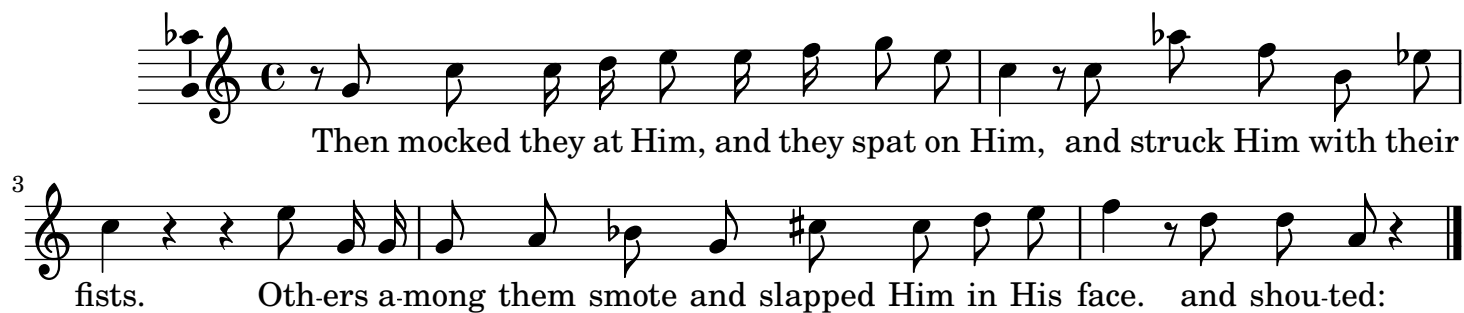

And they that had so laid hold on Je-sus led Him a-way un-to the high priest, Ca-i-phas; and with him were the scribes and the el-ders assem-bled all to-ge-ther. Pe-ter al-so fol-lowed af-ter Him a-far off, un-to the court of the high priest's pa-lace; and went there-in, and sat with the guards and ser-vents, that he might see how all would be end-ed. Then did the priests con-spire with the el-ders, and all of the coun-cil how that they might false wit-ness bring on Je-sus, that He might be put to death. But found they none.

Yea, though many a false and ly-ing wit-ness came, they could find them none. At last two there came who falsely witnessed, in this wise: The high priest then did arise and say to Him: Yet was Je-sus still silent.

And then the high priest gave Him an an-swer thus, and said:
 Je-sus saith to him: There up-on the high priest tore his robes a-sun-der, and said: They answered to him and said:

Then mocked they at Him, and they spat on Him, and struck Him with their fists. Oth-ers a-mong them smote and slapped Him in His face. and shou-ted:

Pe-ter sat out-side in the pal-ace court; and a dam-sel came un-to him and said: But Pe-ter de-nied it be-fore them all, and said: And a-gain at the pal-ace door-way he was seen by an-oth-er maid, who said to them that stood there with him: He de-12 nied it a second time; and store an oath: And in a lit-tle while came 15 oth-ers who has been stand-ing be-side him, and said to Pe-ter:

9

46

 But still did he de-ny with cursing and with swearing: Immediate crew the cock. Then Pe-ter brought to mind the words of Jesus, which 7 said unto him: Ere yet the cock crow-eth, wilt thou have thrice denied Me. And 10
 4

 he went out, and we - - - pt bit-ter-ly.

49

 Now when the morning came, all the chief priests gathered with the 3

 el-ders of the peop-ple to plot ag-ainst Je-sus, that they might kill Him.
 5

 And when they had bound Him, they led Him a - 6

 way, and de-liv-ered Him to the court of the gov-er-nor, Pon-tious Pi-late. When, 8

 there-fore, Ju-das the same who had be-trayed Him saw Je-sus con-demned to death he re-pen-ted of him-self, and brought once a-gain the thir-ty sil-ver pie-ces to the high priests and the elders, and said: They said:

4
10 12

50

Then he cast the sil-ver pie-ces in the tem-ple, and turned away, and went out; and he hanged him-self.
And when the priests had ga-thered all of the sil-ver pie-ces, they said

52

Je-sus there-fore stood be-fore the gov-er-nor; and the gov-er-nor asked Him, and said: Je-sus an-swered un-to him:
But when He was accused when the priests and elders accused Him He answered noth-ing. Then Pi-late said un-to Him: And He answered him to never a word, not one in somuch that the gover nor marvelled greatly.

54

Now up-on that feast the gov-er-nor was ac-cus-tomed to release there-on one pri-son-er un-to them, whom-ev-er they want-ed.

3

5
Now at that time, and a-mong the oth-er pri-son-ers, was a most no-tor-i-ous man, whose name was Barabas. And when they were gathered to-

7

9 ge-ther, Pi-late said un-to them. For he knew full well that it was for en-vy that He had been de-li-vered. And while he 13

11

sat on the judge-ment seat, then did his wife send him a mes-sage, say-ing:

15
Still did the high priests ar-gue, and the el-ders, false-ly to in-flame the 17

peo-ple, that there-by Ba-ra-bas be re-leased, and that Je-sus be cru-ci-fied.

19
And the governor again returned to the people, and asked them: They 22 shouted: Then Pilate said unto them: Again they shouted:

56

The gov-ernor answered:

59

But crying out all the more, they shouted:

When

4
Pi-late, there-fore, had seen he pre-vail-ed noth-ing, but that rath-er a-rose a

6 6
to-mult, he took wa-ter, and washed his hands be-fore them all and 8 said: Then to - ge-ther all the peo-ple an-swered, and 11 said: And Pi-late then set Ba-rab-bas free, but 14
Je-sus he had scourged; and then he de-livered Him, that they might cru - ci-fy Him.

62

The guards of the gov-ernor came, and they took Je-sus to the com-mon 3 hall, and ga-thered a-round him all the sol-dier band And then they did 5 strip Him, and brought a scar-let robe and put it on Him; and platted Him a crown of 7 thorns, and put it upon His head, and a reed in His right Hand; and bowed the knee be-10 fore Him low, and mocked at him and said: And they spat up-on His 13 face and took the reed, and smote Him up-on His head.

64

And af - ter they had mocked Him 2
thus, they took off from Him the scar-let robe, and clothed Him a-gain in His own rai-ment, and led Him a-way that He be cru - - ci-fied.

4

71

 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness o-ver all the land, until the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried aloud, and said:

4

8

 That is: My God, My God, Ah, why why has Thou forsak-en Me? Some of them who stood and watched Him, when they had heard Him, turned and said: And straight-way one of them did run, 15 and took a sponge; and fill-ing the sponge with vin-e-gar, he put it upon a reed, and gave Him to drink. The others spoke among them:

11

13

17

20

 And a-gain did Je-sus cry a-loud, and was gone.

73

 And then be-hold! The veil of the tem-ple was rend-ed in twain all from the top un-to the ground. And there came a great 5 earth-quake, and the rocks burst a - sunder, and the graves were opened again, and 8 8 there rose ma-ny saints and the ho-ly ones that were sleep - ing; and came from 11 out the graves af-ter Je-sus' re-sur-rec-tion, and went in-to the Ho-ly 13 Ci-ty, and ap-peared to ma-ny. Now, when the cap-tain, and the 15 oth-ers with him who were watch-ing Je-sus, when they saw the earth-quake and 17 those things that were done, they trembled greatly, and said At ev-en-tide there 20 came a weal-thy man from A-ri ma the-a by name Jos-eph, who was 22 al-so one of Je-sus' dis-ci-ples. He went un-to Pi-late, and begged of 24 him the bo-dy of Jesus, wherefore Pi-late commanded that it be gi-ven to him.

3

76

Then Jo-seph took the Body, and wrapped it in a cloth of pu-rest 3 lin-en, and laid It in his own new tomb, which he had hewn from 5 out of the so-lid rock. And when he had rolled a mighty stone to the door of the 7 tomb, he went a-way. There were al-so in that place Ma-ry Mag-da-le-na and the 10 oth-er Ma-ry, sitting o-ver against Je-sus' grave. Now on the morrow, which 13 followed the day of preparation, straightway there came the priests and the Pha-ri sees to - 15 geth-er un - to Pi-late, and said: And Pi-late said to 18 them: So they went out, and they guard-ed the grave with 21 watch - men, and they sealed up the stone.
